

KNIFESTYLES OF THE RICH & FAMOUS

FOREHEAD

Hasta la vista, wrinkles! "Daisy's line-free forehead could not have been possible without the help of Botox [$850 every six months]," believes plastic surgeon Dr. Payman Simoni.

CHEEKS

"She appears to have had Juvéderm Voluma injections in her cheeks, which also lifts and enhances her jawline," notes Beverly Hills derm Dr. Simon Ourian. Cost: $4,000 every few years!

LIPS

"As we age, we lose volume from our lips, but Daisy's lips are fuller now than 24 years ago," notes Dr. Simoni. "She's probably used Juvéderm or Restylane [$1,000 a pop] to maintain those sexy lips."

CHIN

Jowl-free zone! "Her chiseled jawline suggests Daisy may have had a nonsurgical Ultra neck lift," says Dr. Ourian. "It tightens deep tissue with radio-frequency or ultrasound energy." Price tag: $3,000!

Daisy Freshens Up

In 1993, Cuban-born Daisy Fuentes blazed a trail when she became MTV's first Latina VJ. Since then, her dynamic career has ranged from House of Style host to actress to retail mogul extraordinaire, launching her own line of fashion, hair care, fragrance, eye-wear and even a Pilates workout. Now 47-year-old Daisy — who's amassed a reported net worth of $165 million along the way — has conquered in another way: turning back time. "Daisy looks as young as she did in her 20s," observes Beverly Hills plastic surgeon Dr. Payman Simoni, who does not treat the star. "She has good genes, but I'd say she's also had a few refreshers to keep her eternally young look!" While he rules out major surgical procedures, Dr. Simoni believes she's using Botox to erase her frown lines, fillers to plump her lips and a nonsurgical facial tightening, such as Ultherapy. Daisy's flawless skin, notes celebrity dermatologist Dr. Simon Ourian (who also does not call Daisy a client), "may be the result of Coolaser resurfacing to eliminate wrinkles, fine lines and other signs of aging." It's also effective in evening out skin tone, he adds, "and Daisy's coloring is now immaculate!" LS

The Man's View

BEFORE OR AFTER?

Hayden Panettiere

The petite Nashville powerhouse, 24, has never confirmed her rumored breast enhancement. But as the adage goes, the camera doesn't lie. While some observers feel the pint-size, 5-foot actress looks a bit top-heavy, men we polled had no such complaint. Surprise, surprise!

MIRACLE IN A JAR

CHEERS TO THE SAKE FACE-LIFT!

Pitera, a skin-soothing substance found in sake, has been harvested for this luxe cream adored by Cate Blanchett. It's said to help transform texture, firmness, wrinkle resilience and glow. We'll drink to that!
